Historical Context

The roots of the Chicano movement can be traced back to the profound social and economic disparities experienced by Mexican Americans throughout U.S. history. Following the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848, which ended the Mexican-American War, large swaths of Mexican territory—California, Arizona, New Mexico, and

These systemic issues created a collective consciousness among Mexican Americans that their rights and identity needed to be actively defended and reclaimed.

The Rise of Political Consciousness

The 20th century saw a gradual awakening among Mexican Americans, especially during the 1940s and 1950s, with the emergence of organizations such as the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and the Mexican American Political Association (MAPA).
