The story is narrated by an unnamed protagonist who visits his childhood friend, Roderick Usher, at the crumbling ancestral estate. Roderick is suffering from acute mental and physical ailments, and his sister Madeline is also gravely ill. The narrator observes the deteriorating mansion and Roderick's fragile state, experiencing an increasing sense of dread as the story progresses. After Madeline's apparent death and her subsequent burial in the family vault, strange phenomena begin to occur. Madeline reappears alive, leading to a terrifying climax where the house itself seems to collapse, symbolizing the fall of the Usher family line.

Narrative Technique

Poe employs a first-person point of view, immersing readers in the narrator's perspective. The narrative is characterized by a slow, deliberate pacing that heightens suspense.
