James Dashner began conceptualizing the Maze Runner series in the early 2000s, inspired by his interest in science fiction, adventure stories, and dystopian worlds. The first book, The Maze Runner, was published in 2009 and quickly gained popularity among young adult readers. Its success prompted Dashner to expand the universe with subsequent installments, culminating in a total of four main novels and several supplementary works. The Publishing Journey The series' rapid rise can be attributed to its compelling premise—teenagers trapped in a mysterious maze with no memory of their past—combined with strategic marketing and positive word-of-mouth. The series' commercial success also paved the way for film adaptations, further amplifying its cultural footprint.
