The main causes of the Cold War include ideological differences between capitalism and communism, conflicting national interests, disagreements over post-war Europe, and mutual suspicion stemming from diplomatic failures. The U.S. aimed to promote democracy and free markets, while the USSR sought to establish a communist sphere of influence. These contrasting goals and policies created mistrust, which was exacerbated by events such as the Berlin Blockade, the formation of opposing military alliances, and disagreements over governance in Europe.

Question 2: How did the Cold War begin to shape international relations?

The Cold War influenced international relations by leading to the formation of military alliances like NATO and the Warsaw Pact, initiating an arms race, and fostering proxy wars in various regions. It created a bipolar world order characterized by competition and ideological rivalry. The division of Europe, exemplified by the Berlin Wall, symbolized the broader East-West conflict, affecting diplomacy, culture, and security policies worldwide.

Digital formats accommodate both approaches. Readers can skim, search, annotate, or read deeply according to their needs, making Dbq 20 The Cold War Begins Answers adaptable rather than restrictive.

Accessibility features further extend the reach of digital books. Adjustable font sizes, screen reader compatibility, and text-to-speech options help accommodate diverse needs. These features ensure that Dbq 20 The Cold War Begins Answers can be accessed by readers with visual impairments or learning differences, supporting inclusive education.
