Ito's rendition intensifies these themes by manifesting inner despair through nightmarish visuals. - Existential Despair: The protagonist, much like Dazai's original character, grapples with feelings of worthlessness and disconnection. Ito visualizes this through disturbing hallucinations, deformities, and surreal landscapes that symbolize the protagonist's fractured psyche. - Identity Crisis: The manga delves into the fluidity and fragmentation of identity, depicting characters who morph visually or lose their selves entirely. This echoes the novel's exploration of self-alienation. - Societal Critique: Ito subtly critiques societal expectations, conformity, and the loneliness that arises from superficial social interactions, heightening the sense of despair.
