This regulation provides comprehensive guidance on the policies, procedures, and responsibilities associated with authorized absences from duty, including various types of leave and passes, their eligibility, processing, and documentation requirements. This detailed review aims to unpack the regulation's key components, offering clarity and practical insights for effective compliance and administration.

Overview of AR 600-8-10

AR 600-8-10, titled "Leaves and Passes," was established to standardize and streamline the management of authorized absences from duty for soldiers. Its primary objectives are to:

- Ensure proper authorization and documentation of leaves and passes
- Define eligibility criteria and procedures for obtaining leave/pass
- Clarify the responsibilities of commanders and soldiers
- Outline the different types of leave and passes available
- Establish policies for leave accrual, utilization, and reporting

The regulation applies to all active-duty soldiers, including Reserve and National Guard components when activated, and addresses both routine and special circumstances related to leave and passes.

Types of Leave and Passes

AR 600-8-10 delineates multiple categories of authorized absence, each serving specific purposes and governed by distinct policies:

1. Ordinary Leave

- Definition: A continuous period of leave granted for rest and recuperation. - Duration: Typically up to 30 days per fiscal year. - Eligibility: All active-duty soldiers accrue leave; eligibility is generally automatic unless waived. - Purpose: Personal rest, travel, family visitation, or personal matters. - Authorization: Commanders approve leave requests based on operational needs and policy compliance.

2. Emergency Leave

- Definition: Leave granted in extraordinary circumstances such as serious family emergencies. - Criteria: Usually granted for urgent situations involving immediate family members (parents, spouse, children, siblings). - Processing: Usually expedited; soldiers may be authorized to depart without prior leave documentation in urgent cases. - Reimbursement: Depending on circumstances, travel costs may be reimbursed under specific policies.

3. Convalescent Leave

- Definition: Leave granted for recovery following illness, injury, or medical treatment. - Eligibility: Soldiers recovering from injuries or illnesses that impact their ability to perform duties. - Duration: As prescribed by medical professionals; typically coordinated through medical channels.

4. Passes

- Definition: Short-term absences from duty for personal reasons, usually up to 72 hours. - Types: - Off-Post Pass: Permission to leave the installation for a specific period. - On-Post Pass: Permission to remain within the installation, often used for special events or family visits. - Purpose: Personal errands, family visits, or short recreational activities. - Authorization: Usually approved by the immediate commander; may be granted as a unilateral decision or after request.

5. Special and Permissive Temporary Duty (TDY) Leave

- Permissive TDY: Authorized absence for specific purposes such as family emergencies or civilian employment; often unpaid. - Special Leave: Occasionally granted for unique circumstances, including compassionate reasons or official assignments.

Eligibility and Entitlements

Understanding who qualifies for different types of leave and how entitlements accrue is critical for proper management.

1. Leave Accrual and Carryover

- Annual Accrual: Soldiers earn 2.5 days of leave per month, totaling 30 days per year. - Carryover Limit: Up to 60 days of accrued leave can be carried into the next fiscal year; excess may be forfeited unless exceptions apply. - Unused Leave: Must generally be used within the fiscal year, with certain exceptions for extended deployments or medical reasons.

2. Eligibility for Emergency and Convalescent Leave

- Typically approved for soldiers experiencing personal or family emergencies or recovering from medical issues. - Requires appropriate documentation, such as medical reports or official notifications.

3. Pass Eligibility

- Usually granted to soldiers in good standing, with approval based on operational requirements. - Soldiers must have completed their initial training and have a satisfactory conduct record.

4. Special Cases

- Soldiers on disciplinary or adverse action may have restrictions. - Reservists and National Guard members may have differing policies based on their status and deployment commitments.

Procedures for Requesting and Approving Leave and Passes

Effective administration hinges on standardized procedures for requesting, processing, and approving leave and passes.

1. Request Submission

- Soldiers typically submit a leave or pass request through their chain of command via designated forms, such as the DA Form 31 (Request and Authority for Leave). - Requests should include: - Dates of leave/pass - Purpose of leave/pass - Location during absence - Contact information

2. Command Approval

- Immediate supervisors review requests based on mission requirements, unit readiness, and soldier's leave balance. - Final approval comes from the commander or designated authority.

3. Documentation and Recordkeeping

- Approved leave/pass requests are documented and filed in personnel records. - Soldiers must carry copies of approved leave/pass documentation during absence.

4. Return and Reporting

- Soldiers are expected to return on the scheduled date. - Upon return, they must report to their supervisor and update leave records accordingly. - Any deviations or extensions require new requests and approvals.

Operational and Policy Considerations

AR 600-8-10 also addresses broader policy issues and operational considerations related to leaves and passes.

1. Leave During Deployment

- Deployment-specific policies often restrict or modify leave entitlements. - Emergency leave may be authorized during deployment for family emergencies. - Commanders evaluate operational needs before approving leave in deployed settings.

2. Leave Restrictions and Limitations

- Soldiers under investigation or disciplinary action may have leave privileges restricted. - Certain health and safety considerations may influence leave approvals, especially during health crises.

3. Leave for Family and Civilian Emergencies

- Policies facilitate compassionate leave for urgent family matters. - Reimbursement policies may vary based on circumstances and location.

4. Leave Accounting and Monitoring

Q2: Are passes renewable or extendable? Yes, passes can often be extended with approval, but soldiers must submit requests prior to expiration, and extensions are granted based on operational needs. Q3: How are leave days accrued for soldiers on extended deployments? Leave accrual continues during deployment, but policies may vary based on operational conditions and specific command directives. Q4: What documentation is necessary for leave approval? Typically, a DA Form 31, along with any supporting documents such as medical certificates or emergency notifications, is required.
