The book is structured into sections that cover major schools of thought, including formalism, structuralism, psychoanalytic criticism, Marxism, feminism, and postmodernism. Each section introduces key concepts, influential critics, and exemplar texts to illustrate theoretical points.

Major Theoretical Approaches Covered in the Book

Formalism and New Criticism

Formalism focuses on the intrinsic features of texts, such as language, structure, and form. It advocates for close reading and emphasizes the text itself rather than external factors like author biography or historical context.

Structuralism and Post-Structuralism

Structuralism explores the underlying systems of language and symbols that shape meaning. Post-structuralism challenges these ideas, emphasizing the fluidity of meaning, the role of the reader, and the instability of language.

Rooted in Freudian and Jungian theories, psychoanalytic criticism examines the unconscious motives of characters and authors, revealing deeper psychological layers within texts.

Marxist Criticism

Marxist theory analyzes literature through the lens of class struggle, economic power, and social inequality. It considers how texts reflect, reinforce, or challenge societal structures.

Feminist Criticism

Feminist critics explore how gender roles, power dynamics, and representations of women shape literary works. They aim to highlight marginalized voices and challenge patriarchal narratives.

Postmodernism and Deconstruction

Postmodernism questions notions of objective truth and emphasizes fragmentation, parody, and the instability of meaning. Deconstruction, a related approach, seeks to expose contradictions within texts.

Practical Application of Literary Criticism

Close Reading Techniques

Close reading involves meticulous analysis of language, imagery, symbolism, and narrative techniques. It helps uncover the nuanced layers of meaning within a text.
