The idea originated from a 1999 stage musical conceived by British playwright Catherine Johnson, who crafted the script around ABBA's timeless hits. The script was designed to serve as a narrative framework that could integrate popular songs into a cohesive story, a concept known as a "jukebox musical." The creative team's challenge was to develop a storyline that would naturally incorporate ABBA's music while resonating emotionally with audiences. This led to the creation of a lighthearted, romantic comedy set on a Greek island, revolving around themes of love, family, and self-discovery.
